

- Csibaj Banda is a Hungarian Slovak band
  - Invited to Bratislava to perform for Foreign Slovaks Day in 2022
    - Organiser specifically highlighted music as one of the few connections Slovakia had with Slovaks abroad
  - Appears to be the only Hungarian Slovak band with any following
    - Musicians don't use the zither or harmonica
- Music keeps Slovak culture alive, but even that's slowly dying
  - Slovaks don't have state support or large cultural institutions or innovations
    - Assimilation is basically guaranteed
    - Completely opposite to the situation of the Croats
